TRANSITIONAL JUSTICE WEEK

Monday, November 14th
Tuesday, November 15th
CLOSED EVENT

Futures, Challenges, and Transformations for Transitional Justice

This workshop brings together over 30 leading scholars of transitional justice to discuss the challenges and opportunities facing the transitional justice field.

For more information on the program and how to request a seat to attend, please visit the Human Rights Center.

Tuesday, November 15th
EVENT FOR STUDENTS

Human Rights in Practice: Transitional Justice

The Human Rights in Practice series gives students the opportunity to engage with international law and human rights practitioners in an informal setting and to learn about diverse career paths in the field. This session will allow students to talk to visiting experts from the Transitional Justice Institute.

Time: 2:30 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.
Location: Mondale Hall 262

RVSP is required (to Vicky @ nguye386@umn.edu)

Wednesday, November 16th
PUBLIC EVENT

Politics of Mass Grave Exhumations and Human Rights

A panel with Francisco Ferrándiz and Antonius Robben featuring the recent volume Necropolitics, which discusses the political and legal struggles surrounding exhumations and the intense social implications of this sensitive undertaking in a variety of local contexts in Latin America, Africa, Europe, and Asia.

Time: 5:00 – 6:00 p.m.
Location: Heller Hall 1210

Thursday, November 17th
PUBLIC EVENT

Peace & Transitional Justice Exhibit: Law Library & Riesenfeld Rare Books Center

This exciting exhibit will highlight some interesting historical works on peace and transitional justice, drawn from the Library's 25,000 volume Arthur C. Pulling Rare Books Collection.

Curated by Dr. Ryan Greenwood, Law School

Time: 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Location: Mondale Hall N-30