Conference Grant

American Society of International Law 111th Annual Meeting

April 12 - 15, 2017
Washington, DC

The Human Rights Center encourages interested law students to attend the Annual Meeting of the American Society of International Law in Washington, D.C. from April 12-15, 2017. The conference is a series of panels and events where the leading and emerging voices in international legal scholarship, policy, and practice aim to answer the most pressing questions of the field today. For additional information about the 111th Annual Meeting, please visit the ASIL website.

The Center will support selected students with the $100 student registration fee and a $200 travel stipend. Students will also benefit from the guidance of the UMN Law School faculty in attendance. We encourage you to apply early as funds are limited and grants will be awarded on a rolling basis.

To apply: Please send a resume and brief cover letter describing the relevance of this conference to your academic or professional training to Vicky at the Human Rights Center at nguye386@umn.edu.
