Registration

Nominated students will be given access to the Bocconi website to view courses and register.

Housing

Nominated students will be given the opportunity to apply for on-campus housing. As long as you apply by their deadline, you will likely be able to live on campus. Please visit www.ir.unibocconi.eu/housingisid for more information.

Participate in our Law School's lottery for the term you will be away. Register for 12-15 credits. Before leaving for your semester abroad, contact the Law School registrar at lawreg@umn.edu to convert your credits to Off-campus Legal Studies.

Financial Aid and Tuition Payment

Financial aid will remain in effect for the semester you are abroad. Please make arrangements to have the balance (after tuition is deducted) sent to you if disbursement occurs after you have departed the U.S.

Insurance

CISI health insurance is required and will cover you while you are outside of the country.

Complete the U of M's travel registration <http://global.umn.edu/travel/registration/index.html> which includes CISI coverage. Once you have signed up, you will receive proof of insurance.

U of M student health coverage for the semester is about $1,000.00. It is highly recommended in the event you need to return home for any reason prior to the end of the semester. This expense has not been included in the estimated budget.

Travel Documents

You must have a valid passport to travel abroad. If you do not have a passport, please apply immediately. You will need a visa to enter Italy. Your student visa must be obtained BEFORE you leave the U.S. You will not be able to get it after you arrive in Italy. Please visit www.ir.unibocconi.eu/inexchange for more information about obtaining your student visa.

Cancellation Policy

Student Cancellation Due to Program Changes

In the event that course offerings for exchange students are changed so as to offer no comparable program of study, or changes in other significant aspects of the program occur, you are entitled to a full refund of any and all tuition and fees paid should you find the program as altered unsuitable to your goals.

State Department Advisories

The most current Consular Information Sheet on is available on the internet at <http://travel.state.gov/> In the event the U.S. State Department issues any information or warning about current events which would impact your safety, or the stability in the geographic region, you will be notified via your U of M email account and telephone prior to your departure. If, based upon the information conveyed to you, you wish to cancel your enrollment in the program, you will receive a full refund of any and all tuition and fees paid.

Cancellation of Program by University of Minnesota Law School

The University of Minnesota Law School reserves the right to cancel this program within six weeks prior to the start of classes for the semester in which you intend to enroll. The Law School has never exercised this option and cancellation is not expected to occur this year. In the event of cancellation, however, arrangements will be made to permit you to enroll in courses offered at the University of Minnesota Law School.

Accessibility

The International Student Desk staff support incoming students with disabilities/special needs by trying to create for them the same conditions they receive at home for their examinations. During the online application for the exchange program, students are required to notify their disability (if any). During the semester, the International Student Desk (ISD) will contact the students with further instructions on how to provide the supporting paperwork in order for the reference office to arrange special accommodations. Students with a disability will be able to contact the ISD office throughout their stay in order for their staff to liaise directly with the different Bocconi offices offering disability support.
