The Law School was a pioneer in the field of providing clinical legal education, introducing clinical education to law students in 1913. Our Law Clinics provide upper-level law students with a unique educational opportunity. The Student Practice Rule adopted by the Minnesota Supreme Court allows clinic students to represent clients in court proceedings under the supervision of the clinic faculty.

Our law school has an unusually large number of clinical courses. You can find a brochure describing our clinics at https://www.law.umn.edu/sites/law.umn.edu/files/downloads/umnlaw\_clinicsbrochure\_final.pdf.
