CELEBRATE INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS DAY

DECEMBER 9 & 10, 2016

Special guests:
Pamela Yates & Paco de Onis
Skylight Pictures

Skylight Pictures produces artistic, challenging, and socially relevant media to strengthen human rights and the quest for justice. Since 1981, Skylight has combined the storytelling arts with human rights media strategies in the service of social movements. From the Peruvian Truth and Reconciliation Commission to the International Criminal Court, they tell stories that engage people through a human rights perspective.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9

Masterclass:
Human Rights Filmmaking

Free and open to the public
1:30 – 4:00 pm

University of Minnesota Law School
Mondale Hall Room 25
229 19th Avenue South
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455

Paco & Pamela will give a crash course on what it means to be a human rights media organization. They will show clips from two of Skylight’s latest projects: 500 years and Dictator in the Dock. Learn from our guests about their model of human rights filmmaking and best practices for collaborations between independent storytellers and movement actors.

PLEASE RSVP TO NGUYE386@UMN.EDU

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10

Film Screening & Discussion:
Granito

Open to the public
(suggested donation $5)
4:30 pm

Film Society’s St. Anthony Main Theater
115 Southeast Main Street
Minneapolis, MN 55414

The film screening will be followed by a discussion with filmmakers Paco de Onis and Pamela Yates

Granito: How to Nail a Dictator is a story of destinies joined by Guatemala’s past and of a documentary intertwined with a nation’s turbulent history that emerges as an active player in the present. The characters sift for clues buried in archives of mind and place and historical memory, seeking to uncover a narrative that could unlock the past and settle matters of life and death in the present.
