The United States has 5% of the world’s population and 25% of the world’s prison population.
How many people are locked up in the United States?

The U.S. locks up more people per capita than any other nation, at the staggering rate of 698 per 100,000 residents. But to end mass incarceration, we must first consider where and why 2.3 million people are confined nationwide.

Next Step is a collaboration between St. Louis County Probation and The Center for Alcohol and Drug Treatment of Duluth.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Are those all of the probation requirements that you offer assistance with?

No, in fact this is just a starting list. We can use our contacts to locate any information or applications that you may need along the way.

When can I start the clinic?

Just call and set up an appointment and we will have your preliminary documents ready. We can begin helping you create a plan for success right away.

What if I can’t afford the clinic?

The clinic is entirely free of charge. We are here to provide you with the resources you need to succeed and ask nothing in return.

Will my public defender be working with me?

The clinic will be managed by attorneys and licensed social workers, but staffed by a social work intern who has close access to all of the defender’s resources, contacts, and knowhow.
