Expand your global fluency with the University of San Diego School of Law’s summer study abroad programs!

Paris, France  (June 6 – July 2, 2016)

Focus on International Intellectual Property and Comparative Law at one of the most important centers of international law practice in the world! Our Paris program was established in 1973 as the first summer law program on the continent of Europe. Paris’ monuments, museums and restaurants make it one of the most pleasant cities in the world. Previous academic excursions have included: visiting the Palais de Justice, the Conseil d’État and the Sénat. Last summer, students had the opportunity to tour the Seine River, attend a Luxury Food walk and enroll in a cheese tasting course.

Summer 2016 Courses
- International Internet & Intellectual Property Law (3 credits)
- Comparative Law (2 credits)

Learn about International Business Law at one of the world’s leading financial centers! Our London program is located in the heart of the British legal world, where students interested in international business law will find this program just their “cup of tea.” Previous academic excursions have included: a tour of “Legal London,” a tour of the historic and awe-inspiring buildings of Middle Temple, visits to the Supreme Court, Royal Courts of Justice, and London Metal Exchange, as well as a visit to the British Museum.

Summer 2016 Courses
- International Deals (3 credits)
- International Commercial Negotiations (2 credits)
